

💡 surfingYogis — Website & Content Revamp Proposal

I've taken a look at surfingYogis's current website and Instagram page, and honestly — there's so much potential that's not being showcased yet. You already have a great concept and offering, but the digital presence doesn't reflect the same energy or value.

🔍 Current Problems

1. Website lacks engagement: It's too minimal and doesn't hold user attention for long. Navigation feels confusing — users can't easily move from one section to another.
2. No booking or lead generation system: There's no clear way for interested people to contact you, book a class, or even leave their details for follow-ups. This means you're losing a lot of potential leads every single day.
3. No analytics or conversion tracking: You can't currently track which parts of the site attract attention and which ones lose visitors.
4. Content & Branding gaps: The Instagram profile has only a few posts and reels, low engagement, and doesn't highlight your expertise or brand personality. There's no consistent storytelling about what makes Surfing Yogas unique.
